The latest superstition is that if a girl takes the small bow which fastens the lining of a man's hat, and wears it inside her shoe, she will have a proposal from the youth within a month. The success of the echeme may be open to question, but it is proving very destructive to hats.

The Justice's court was engaged all of yesterday with the case of Moroita & Matli ve. A. T. Page. Plaintiff's demanded $77-25 as a balance due on an account for work done at various times. Defendant made a counter claim for watering cattle at the eight mile house for a year past of $24.75 in excess of plaintiff's demand. The case was tried before a jury of eight who found for the plaintiff's for $62.25 and costs. The case will probably be appealed to the District Court.

> Vanderbilt is not having a boom. No one is picking up nuggets that are worth from one hundred to one million dollars. All that is being done is just the showing up of what there is in camp. First, the Gold Bar company finds a five foot vein of very rich ore, and then A. G. Campbell gets in and uncovers a vein, which at the present writing show twenty-one feet in width, all of which will pay for working, and some of which is very rich. So, although we don't pretend to be having a boom, we think that the veins now uncovered here can't be beaten in the southern country. All of which we submit to the thoughtful consideration of the people who are contemplating move to a mining camp. - Shaft.

A startling story comes from the Needles -that, as a traveler's tale on hearsay, it requires confirmation to be accepted. A young Indian mother of twins was, after a grave powwow of the Mojave lodges camped JOB PRINTING in all its near that point on the Celorado, inclosed in her hut of brushwood and, without resistance on her part, burned to death and all belongings consmued. Her offense was that of being a witch from having given birth to twins. The children were clubbed to death. As white people are very little in contact with this band of Mojaves save to demoralize them when they come begging around the trains, incidents of this character are not easily prevented .- Ex.

Monday's Entertainment.

The first appearance of our local Dramatic Association Monday evening, is pronounced a success. More was given than a majority of those who attended were led to expect. The effect of a free show announcement was manifested by the attendance which was acknowledged to be the largest gathering seen in the hall in a long time. The entertain ment was better in many respects than some which have been given here and for which full admission price was charged and the effect of this first effort will be to encourage the members of the company to present another play at an early date. A large majority of the parts were well carried out and many points observed which will be improved upon at the next turnout. As announced, the affair terminated with a dance, to which a full house remained, and dancing was kept up until after four o'clock the following morning.

A Daily Mail.

Beginning with last Monday the mail service between Pioche and Milford was increased to six trips a week. The schedule time will no doubt be the same as that which was followed last Summer. The Consolidated Implement Co. of Milford, Utah is the carrier, under the name of the Utah and Nevada Stage Co. "Comfort and Improved Service" is their motto, and we hope they will live up to it. A general express service also will be added, something we have suffered for for a long time past.

The examination of the Monitor and Jim Crow mines at Ferguson district, just made by Denver parties is the first examination of those properties which has been made by outside mining investors. They decline to buy at the owner's figures, but the fact that they offer in substance to put up what must amount to nearly $200,000 to work the mines, and take stock, looks exceedingly well for the properties. Other investors will be brought to view the bonanzas, and in the meantime developments there continue and every week renders the properties more valuable. Ferguson district is stepping rapidly into the sunlight of prosperity.

At Pioche, Lincoln county, is the most expensive piece of pumping machinery in the United States. It is a Cornish pump which cost in early days $254,000. Such a pump can now be purchased for $40,000.

The above paragraph has been copied by a majority of the Pacific slope exchanges as a fact. The hydraulic pumps at the Combination shaft cost $3,000,000. the first set put in cost $750,000. The surface pump plant at the same shaft cost $400,000. That at the Union shaft cost $650,000. At the Yellow Jacket new shaft the steam pump plant cost nearly $800,000, while that the Forman shaft cost $500,000. Statistics show that the pumping machinery on the Comstock is not only the most costly but most powerful in the world .- Territorial Enterprise.

Monitor--Jim Crow Option.

Saturday evening S. T. Godbe, and Messers Wunsch, Hussey and Smith, the experts who went down to Ferguson early last week to examine the Monitor and the Jim Crow mines, returned here on their way back to Denver. They remained over Sunday assaying a number of the samples brought up and Monday left for Denver, Mr. Godbe accom panying. It was reported that the gentle men thought well of the properties and were willing to take them, but on terms materially different to what the owners offer. Ex actly what their offer was is not known but it is said to be that they were willing to put up money to bring in water, build reduction works and set work going on a good basis, the two properties to be consolidated and the capital stock to be divided between the ourchasers and the mine owners. Mr. Godbe will return again in about three weeks with other parties from New York. It appears he was on his way there when Mesars Wunsch and Hussey became in terested at Denver and he turned back from that point. The reported sale of these properties for $450,000 in the last issue of the Salt Lake Pribune is evidently a mistake. The report however, is not likely to be detrimental as a change of ownership will no doubt soon

Sixteen prisoners in the Salt Lake County jail very nearly escaped last Thursday. Working at times when the jailer was at Druggist and Apothecary meals they dug out two tiers of brick back of a frame on the wall containing the prison regulations. The prisoners had dug out two tiers of brick back of this frame, making a hole about 13x16 inches, and bad only left the outside row of bricks. The bricks were left standing to hide their work from the outside until the proper time, and only required a small effort to push them down It is thought the prisoners intended to make the attempt at the first favorable opportunity. Finding a few broken pieces of brick on the floor resulted in a search and ended

That the bonance crowd should have shut down their mine in the Vauderbilt ledges argues nothing against the richness of the camp. George M. Parsons, found guilty of murder in the second degree at Carson, was to imprisonment for twenty-one years. In passing the sentence the Judge said that while Parsons merited the extreme penalty of the law, on account of the recommenda tion of the jury that he be dealt with mercifully, the sentence was accordingly made lighter.
